

Kayla Barrett Earns DiSC Facilitator Certification

Nashville, TN (October 19, 2011) – Organization Impact is pleased to announce that its president, Kayla Barrett has earned the requirements for Certified DiSC Facilitator. The certification was awarded by Impact Business Coaches, an authorized distributor of Inscape Publishing.

The DiSC inventory, developed by William Moulton Marston, profiles four primary behavioral styles, each with a very distinct and predictable pattern of observable behavior. The inventory is used for personal growth and development, training, coaching and managing of individuals, groups, teams, and organizations.

This achievement reaffirms that Ms. Barrett has the knowledge and skills to help individuals and organizations better understand their personal profile and the implications to the greater organization. “This certification adds an important tool to our capabilities. I’m happy to be able to provide an additional strategy that will help our clients become more effective and successful,” says Barrett.

Organization Impact, LLC specializes in educational workshops and consulting services in the areas of leadership development, human resources and employee engagement. Customized course content and resources are available for the corporate marketplace, non-profit sector and ministry organizations.

###

Media Contact and Interview Requests:
Marketing Department
Organization Impact LLC
Email: info@organizationimpact.com
Phone: 615.424.4766